

Dr. Paulo Miranda did his master's and PhD at the Federal University of Minas Gerais / Brazil. He has been head of Neuroendocrinology Unit at Santa Casa de Belo Horizonte since 2004. He is a member of the neuro-oncology group and coordinates the Endocrinology and Metabology Service at Mater Dei Hospital. Professor of Medicine at UniBH since 2012. He is currently Vice-President and President of the Scientific

Committee of the Brazilian Society of Endocrinology and Metabology.